KANSAS CITY ART INSTITUTE OFFICERS and TRUSTEES

THE Art Institute is a civic institution whose object is to foster the arts, a co-operative means of adding to the fullness and joy of the every day life of all citizens in Kansas City, through the work of the school, and the holding of exhibitions and lectures of the highest possible caliber. Its activities are carried on by means of funds raised in memberships and bequests. The representative progressive citizens named below are among those 1,500 members of the Institute who direct and foster the destinies of the city as a great art center.

"Salus Populi Suprema Est Lex"—Motto of Missouri
"The welfare of the people is the highest law."

AN EXHIBITION OF SELECTED WORK BY MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF DESIGN

THE majority of the works in this exhibition were originally shown in the last winter Academy in New York City, at which time the following members acted on THE JURY OF SELECTION: H. Bolton Jones, N.A., Chairman; Cullen Yates, N.A., secretary; Paul Bartlett, N.A., Louis Betts, N.A., Charles Bittinger, A.N.A., Max Bohm, N.A., E. Irving Couse, N.A., Bruce Crane, N.A., Elliott Daingerfield, N.A., Edward Dufner, A.N.A., Ben Foster, N.A., August Franzen, N.A., Howard Giles, A.N.A., Albert Groll, N.A., Childe Hassam, N.A., Paul King, A.N.A., Ernest Lawson, N.A., Jonas Lie, A.N.A., Will H. Low, N.A., William Ritschel, N.A., Henry B. Snell, N.A., Robert Spencer, N.A., Walter Ufer, A.N.A., Douglas Volk, N.A., Harry W. Watrous, N.A., Irving Wiles, N.A., Ballard Williams, N.A.

Next to the Pennsylvania Academy, the National Academy of Design is one of the oldest art organizations in America, being comparable in tradition, scope, and importance to the Royal Academy, founded in London in 1768, and similar institutions in the chief European art centers. The history of the Academy is bound up with America's progress in the fine arts, particularly painting and sculpture. It was founded nearly a century ago when, on the 8th of November, 1825, a number of young Artists and Students established the New York Drawing Association; and soon after, on the 19th of January, 1826, they resolved themselves into a new organization, to be known as the National Academy of the Arts of Design. They thereupon chose from their number fifteen artists, who were directed to choose fifteen others, the thirty thus selected to constitute the new society. Of this body of Founders of the National Academy of Design whose names are here recorded, the last survivor, Thomas S. Cummings, N.A., who was for many years the Treasurer, and at one time the Vice-President of the Academy, died September 25, 1894.

THE FIRST FIFTEEN

Thomas S. Cummings, M. I. Danforth, William Dunlap, Asher B. Durand, John Frazee, Charles C. Ingham, Henry Inman, G. Marsiglia, Peter Maverick, S. F. B. Morse, Edward C. Potter, Hugh Reinagle, Ithiel Town, W. G. Wall, Charles C. Wright.

THE SECOND FIFTEEN

Frederick S. Agate, Alexander Anderson, Thomas Cole, James Coyle, John Evers, William Jewett, William Main, John Paradise, J. Parisen, Rembrandt Peale, Nathaniel Rogers, Martin E. Thompson, John Vanderlyn, Samuel L. Waldo, D. W. Wilson.

In time perhaps there will arise in a similar manner a WESTERN ACADEMY which will do as much for the arts in this territory as the National of Design has done in the East.

In order that we may come to know our artists and their work, at least as well as our musicians and writers, abridged biographies precede the work of each man.

Sizes and prices are also indicated on all available work.

A ONE MAN EXHIBITION OF RECENT WORK IN VARIOUS MEDIUMS BY ETHEL GREENOUGH HOLMES

ETHEL Greenough Holmes was born in Boston, Mass., but moved to Cleveland, Ohio, during her school years. Her preliminary years of art study were passed at the Cleveland Art School. Since her study in oils has been only for isolated months under different teachers, her achievements in this line are due to application of ideas gained from thoughtful observation and study of pictures, together with persistent work. Mrs. Holmes took the $50.00 prize for a painting in any medium at the Kansas City Artists' Exhibition for 1920. She is a member of the American Federation of Arts and has exhibited with The Independent Artist in New York.

This exhibition shows the result of impressions recently received on journeys into America's picturesque West, particularly in Estes Park and the Canadian Northwest. The beauties of many of Kansas City's choice spots have also been a fertile source of inspiration interpreted in broad strokes of glowing color.

A GROUP OF PASTELS BY ROBERT HENRI AND HUGH H. BRECKENRIDGE

*P*ASTEL is a medium which has gained greater popularity in the past ten years than it has attained since the day of Quentin La Tour in the reign of Louis XV, when it was chiefly used in portraiture. The modern artist delights in its use because of the directness and rapidity with which it may be utilized to record impressions.
